All Suits Reduced.

—and reductions that are unusually deep—

There have been none held out. All are included—every remaining Suit of the spring stock. Their exclusiveness is preserved; and their effectiveness of model and design made them markedly popular.

That's your choice now of two great groups.

Suits that have sold up to $75 ..... $25.00

Suits that have sold up to $50 ..... $17.50

Just the colors you want—plenty of Blues and Blacks—and the variety of novelty shades—in Silk Jerseys, Poiret Twills, Gabardines, Taffetas, Serges, Tweeds, Mannish Weaves, Novelty Cloths.

Yes—your size is here—if not in one model it is in another—and whichever it may be is a new and smart design—whether for dress or sport wear.

We are seeking complete clearance—quickly. That's why the reductions are so extraordinary.

Miss Edith Blair and Lieut. Commander Staton to Have Country Home Wedding.

Marriage of Miss Louise Hodges and Lieut. Dickson at Fort Totten Today.

Miss Edith Blair, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery Blair, and Lieut. Commander Adolphus Staton, U. S. N., whose engagement was recently announced, will be married Saturday, July 28, at Falkland, the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Blair at Silver Spring, Md. The ceremony, which will take place in the afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, will be witnessed by only a family party and will be followed by a reception.

Miss Minna Blair and Miss Virginia Blair, sisters of Miss Edith, will be bridesmaids, and Miss Ellen Blair, the youngest daughter of the family, will be a flower girl. Commander Staton will have as his best man his brother, Mr. Henry Staton of New York.

Mrs. Richardson Cliver will entertain informally at dinner Friday for Miss Blair and Commander Staton, and on Saturday Miss Carolyn Nash will have guests to meet them at an informal dinner party.

Miss Louise Hodges, daughter of Brig. Gen. Harry F. Hodges and Mrs. Hodges, will be married today to Lieut. George Louis Dickson, U. S. N. The wedding will take place at Fort Totten, where Gen. Hodges is stationed as commander.

Hungerford will be best man. Mr. E. DuVal Duckett, U. S. N., and Mr. William T. Woolton of Baltimore, Md., will be the ushers.

A pretty wedding took place yesterday at noon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stucker, in T street, when their daughter, Miss Gertrude Marie Stucker, became the bride of Mr. T. Clay Lindsay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilson Lindsay of Dayton, Ohio. The ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. Douglas P. Birnie, took place in the drawing room, the bay window being banked with palms, daisies and wild honeysuckle, while the decorations in the dining room were water lilies. The wedding music was played by Mrs. Douglas P. Birnie, who played the wedding music. The bride wore a becoming gown of silver gray georgette crepe and tulle, and carried a bouquet of pink and white sweet peas.

Miss Reta Stucker, who was her sister's only attendant, was in a gown of pink and white sweet peas. A reception followed with additional guests, after which Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay left for a wedding trip to New York and the Thousand Islands. Mr. Lindsay is wearing a gown of amethyst tulle, headed in two tones with a medium sized black hat, trimmed with a black bird of paradise. The costume was topped by a blue cloth coat. They will be at home after August 15 at 1818 Kalorama road, where they have taken an apartment. Among the out-of-town guests for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilson Lindsay and Miss Myrtle Lindsay, parents and sister of the bridegroom, from Dayton, Ohio.

A dress rehearsal was held yesterday afternoon in the blue garden at the residence of former Commodore and
